Understanding Gynecologic Cancers

This CME program at Hospital HIMA, Bistro Tartine, will provide the landmark changes and issues in Gynecologic cancers. Target audience includes Physicians, Advanced Practice Professionals, Nurses and Allied Health Professionals.

Friday, December 2, 2022
Check-in: 8:00 A.M.
Program: 8:30 - 9:30 A.M.

Hospital HIMA Bistro Tartine
500 Ave. Degetau, HIMA Plaza 1
Caguas, 00725, Puerto Rico
Presented in English

SPEAKER
Robert Wenham, MD,
MS, FACOG, FACS
Department Chair,
Gynecologic Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Learning Objectives:
- Understand the changes and new trends in the surgical management of Gynecologic cancers.
- Describe how molecular diagnostic testing is changing:
- Express an understanding of cancer etiology
- Explain how we manage Gynecologic cancers

To register for this complimentary accredited, limited seating program, click here.

Questions? Contact:
Marina.Delgadillo@Moffitt.org
813-745-4798

Provided by:
USF Health