Breast Cancer: Multidisciplinary Case-Based Presentations

Course Description: The course will provide multidisciplinary case-based presentations for evaluation and treatment of patients at high risk for breast cancer, surgical treatment of high-risk breast lesions, hereditary breast cancer, closing the gap in breast cancer disparities, and breast cancer in senior adults.

Target Audience: Medical Oncologists, Breast & General Surgeons, Radiation Oncologists, Internal Medicine Physicians, Family Practice Physicians, Gynecologists, Pathologists, Radiologists.

Thursday, October 13, 2022
6:00 PM – 8:00 PM
Season’s 52
204 Westshore Blvd.
Tampa, FL 33609

Loretta Loftus, MD
Vice Chair, Breast Program
Senior Member with Tenure
Professor of Medicine & Oncology
Department of Breast Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Brian Czerniecki, MD
Department Chair
Department of Breast Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Christine Laronga, MD, FACS
Senior Member
Professor of Surgery
Department of Breast Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Susan Hoover, MD
Senior Member
Professor of Surgery
Department of Breast Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Roberto Diaz, MD
PhD
Clinical Director, Network
Senior Member with Tenure
Professor, Oncologic Sciences
Department of Radiation Oncology
Moffitt Cancer Center

Kimberley Lee, MD MHS
Assistant Member
Department of Breast Oncology
Department of Health Outcomes & Behavior
Moffitt Cancer Center

To register for this complimentary program, click here.
For more questions, contact: Paula.Kiss@Moffitt.org or 813-758-1423

ACCREDITATION: This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1.5 Credits™

Provided By:

USF Health