Early Detection and Management of Resectable Stage I-III Lung Cancer

In a multi-disciplinary, case-based format, the speakers will discuss common presentations as well as screening, diagnosis and treatment pathways for patients diagnosed with stage I-III lung cancer as well as monitoring high risk patients for lung cancer.

Thursday, November 3, 2022

Season’s 52
204 Westshore Blvd., Tampa, FL 33609
Check in/Networking Reception: 6:00 – 6:30 PM
Program: 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Jacques Fontaine, MD, FACS, FRCS(c)
Senior Member
Department of Thoracic and GI Oncology
Section Head,
Mesothelioma Treatment & Research Center
Program Director,
Robotic Thoracic Surgery Fellowship

Larry Robinson, MD
Senior Member
Cardiothoracic Surgeon
Medical Director for Lung Early Detection Center,
Department of Thoracic Oncology

Stephen Rosenberg, MD, MS
Director of MRI Guided Radiation Therapy
Assistant Member,
Department of Radiation Oncology

Michael Shafique, MD
Assistant Member
Medical Oncologist
Department of Thoracic Oncology

Registration is complimentary but required. For more questions, contact: Paula.Kiss@Moffitt.org

ACCREDITATION: This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™